

Youth Services Mapping in the Kaipātiki area

Youth Services Directory

Created by Kaipātiki Community Facilities Trust

Massey University Placements- Danielle Paul and Sarah Haggerty

Contents

Advisory

- Kaipātiki Youth Development Trust
- Kaipātiki Community Facilities Trust
- Citizens Advice Bureau Glenfield
- Citizens Advice Bureau Northcote
- Citizens Advice Bureau Birkenhead
- Glenfield Library
- Glenfield College Careers Advisory Department

Development

- Northern Skills and Jobs Hub
- Steps to Success Resilience Program
- Glenfield College Adult and Community Education
- Literacy Aotearoa

Wellbeing

- Home and Family Counselling
- Hearts and Minds
- Kaipātiki Youth Development Trust
- North Shore Women's Centre
- Te Puna Haurora o Te Paki Paewhenua
- The Fono Health and Social Services- Northcote
- The Youth Health Hub (Healthwest)

Education- Support

- Marist Alternative Education

Financial

- Beneficiaries Advocacy & Information Service (BAIS)
- Work and Income (WINZ)

Advisory

Kaipātiki Youth Development Trust

Address: Marlborough Park, Chartwell Avenue

Phone: 027 605 2300

Opening Hours: Mon - Fri 8.30 am - 4.00 pm

The KYDT is as a community-based social service provider working alongside 'at-risk' young people and their whānau.

Kaipātiki Community Facilities Trust

Address: 15 Chartwell Avenue, Glenfield

Phone: 09 484 8854

Opening Hours: Mon - Fri 9:30am- 3:30pm

The KCFT, through a partnership with the Kaipatiki Local Board as their lead organisation, provide community development and a variety of programmes, events and projects for the Kaipatiki community.

Youth Line

Phone: 0800 376 633

Text: 234

Email: talk@youthline.co.nz

Citizens Advice Bureau (various locations)

CAB offers free independent information and advice to anyone on any subject. Relevant subjects are:

- Housing
- Employment
- Health
- Education
- Benefit and allowances

Citizens Advice Bureau Glenfield

Address: 90 Bentley Ave, Glenfield, Auckland

Phone: 09 444 9451

Opening hours: Monday–Friday, 9am–4:30pm

Citizens Advice Bureau Northcote

Address: Northcote Library

Phone: 09 480 2971

Opening hours: Monday–Friday 9:15am–3pm

Citizens Advice Bureau Birkenhead

Address: Birkenhead Library, 2 Rawene Road, Birkenhead

Phone: 09 418 0032

Opening hours: Monday–Friday 9am–4pm

Glenfield College Careers Advisory Department

Address: 60 Kaipātiki Road, Glenfield, Auckland

Phone: 09 444 9066

Glenfield College offers career advice to students on subjects of employment and skills training. They aim to help students with their career decisions, provide awareness of career options and assist students in their transition from schools to work. They offer tertiary course information, career directories, career guest speakers, and access to careers advisor. This is for all Glenfield College students from year 9 to 13.

Development

Northern Skills and Jobs Hub

Address: 2 Kaipātiki Road, Glenfield, Auckland

Works with education providers, schools and businesses to help local young people get into employment. They offer services such as CV writing, advice on training and certifications, job interview training and career guidance.

Northern Skills and Jobs Hub also works alongside Skills in Construction (government programme) who offer free recruitment services into Auckland's construction and infrastructure sectors.

Northern Skills and Jobs Hub also holds the:

Steps to Success Resilience Program

Address: 2 Kaipātiki Road, Glenfield, Auckland

Email: sonia.nerheny@mbie.govt.nz

Under the umbrella of Northern Jobs and Skills Hub, this program works across the Northshore and Rodney region, offering pathways to education and employment through a mentor-like resilience program, teaching young people overall life and employment skills.

Glenfield College Adult and Community Education

Address: 52-60 Kaipātiki Road, Glenfield, Auckland

Email: info@gcc.co.nz

Phone: 09 444 1353

Glenfield College Adult and Community Education offers a range of services from basic computer skills, skills courses in accountancy and business, driving courses, workplace skills courses and language courses in English, Te Reo Māori, French, Spanish and Mandarin. These courses do require a payment to attend, with prices varying depending on the course.

Literacy Aotearoa

Address: 96 Bentley Ave, Glenfield, Auckland

Phone: 09 444 0420

Literacy Aotearoa provides private or small group tutoring in reading, writing and math skills.

Heart For Youth Trust

Website: <https://www.heartforyouth.org.nz/>

Email: info@heartforyouth.org.nz

Education- Support

Marist Alternative Education

Address: 20/46 Ellice Rd, Glenfield Auckland

Phone: +64 (9) 441 3590

Email: office@maristedu.org.nz

Marist Alternative Education Ltd. is a Ministry of the Marist Brothers of New Zealand, giving young people in the North Shore Region a second chance at Education.

Wellbeing

Kaipātiki Youth Development Trust

Address: Marlborough Park, Chartwell Avenue

Phone: 027 605 2300

Opening Hours: Mon - Fri 8.30 am - 4.00 pm

The KYDT is as a community-based social service provider working alongside 'at-risk' young people and their whānau.

Hearts and Minds

Address: 65 Pearn Crescent, Northcote (beside Library)
0627

Email: info@heartsandminds.org.nz

Hearts & Minds NZ is a community development agency with an integrated focus on wellbeing. They connect people to relevant resources available and offer various groups such as wellbeing and resilience groups and community training workshops.

Home and Family Counselling

Address: Seaview Ave & Onewa Road, Northcote

Phone: 09 419 9853

Email: northshore@hfc.org.nz

Home and Family Counselling offer a range of services for families and young people. For young people aged 15-18, they offer an 8-week workshop called 'I have, I am, I can.' This workshop looks at self-confidence and focuses on how these youth can reach their full potential. Along with this program, Home and Family Counselling offer two other workshops on creating respectful relationships and managing emotions.

North Shore Women's Centre

Address: 5 Mayfield Road, Glenfield

Phone: (09) 444 4618

North Shore Women's Centre provides essential support services for women. These services include a free legal clinic, counselling, social work, assessment and information and referral.

Te Puna Hauora o Te Paki Paewhenua

Address: 58a Akoranga Drive | 166 Birkdale Rd

Phone: (09) 489 3049

Te Puna was established as a Māori Health provider to address health inequalities by providing high quality, accessible and affordable care and support.

The Fono Health and Social Services- Northcote

Address: 65 Pearn Crescent, Northcote

Phone: 0800 366 648

The Fono offer a selection of community services for families from their community hub, located at Raeburn House in Northcote. The Fono is a proven leader in delivering health outcomes for the people who need it the most, fostering well, safe, vibrant and informed communities.

The Youth Health Hub (Healthwest)

Address: 414a Glenfield Road, Glenfield

Phone: 0800 562 023

The Youth Health Hub is a free health service to young people aged 12-24 years living in West Auckland, North Shore, and Rodney. They offer free general Youth Health Clinics by appointment throughout the week.

Financial

Beneficiaries Advocacy & Information Service (BAIS)

Address: Glenfield Community Centre

Opening Hours: Mon - Fri 9.30 am - 3.00 pm

Email: info@bais.org.nz

BAIS provides free independent information, advice and advocacy to beneficiaries and low-income people in regard to financial assistance from Work and Income NZ and the Inland Revenue Department.

Work and Income (WINZ)

Address: 1 Peach Road, Glenfield, Auckland

Fax: 09 441 9172

Work and Income provide financial assistance to those on low income or not working. They also offer support in work and housing. They have a range of services such as training and work experience, childcare support payments, employer services, help with housing and covid-19 support.

Any further enquiries about Youth Services or support areas for young people please

Contact

Kaipātiki Youth Development Trust

kydt13@outlook.com

Peter on 027 6052300